

Architectural Technologist - Optimise Design

Optimise Design are looking for outstanding candidates with a minimum of 3 years' experience in residential schemes with an immediate start.

Optimise Design are a busy Architecture and Interior Design company based in Dublin 2. The company specialise in high quality residential projects and our client base in this area is rapidly growing.

The practice believes that architecture and interior design should be firmly fused in order to deliver successful projects. The successful applicant will be expected to work on a number of projects simultaneously.

Desirable:

Experience in residential projects.
On site experience.

Role Summary:

Reporting to the lead Technician and being a part of a team of 7, this role will support our architectural team in the compilation of planning applications & tender packages, carrying out site surveys and dealing with contractor and supplier site related queries.

Specific responsibilities for the role will include:

1. Site Surveys
2. Planning applications
3. Compiling and producing tender packages
4. Dealing with site related queries, from clients, contractors and suppliers.

Experience

- Three years plus experience in residential schemes.
- Able to confidently manage production of tender and planning packages.
- Site experience.

Communication

- Fluent in English, both written and spoken.
- Confidence in communicating with staff, consultants and clients (in person, phone, e-mail, letter and reports).
- Able to work well in a studio environment and as a member of a team.
- Able to contribute to the team as a whole through the sharing of experience, technical skills and creative direction, suppliers and imagery.

Skills

- Third Level - Degree / Diploma in Architecture / Architectural Technology
- Have excellent understanding of traditional construction methods and materials
- Have an excellent understanding of current building regulations
- Candidates should be fully conversant in AutoCAD

A full clean drivers licence and car is essential for this role

NOTE: No agency or phone call applications will be accepted, all applications are to be via e-mail. Please email a copy of your CV with details of current salary / salary expectations explaining how you meet the needs of this role to info@optimise-design.com